About Rick Tomlinson

Before even starting to read this you should look at Rick's website www.rick-tomlinson.com and you will be rushing to book your seat!!

Rick Tomlinson is very well known in sailing circles worldwide and is one of the foremost photographers in yachting. His photographic career started in 1985 when taking photos aboard the maxi yacht "Drum" in the Whitbread Race and since then he has done many more regattas and Around the World Races both as crew and photographer. He has sailed in four Whitbread/Volvo races as well as being involved with the GBR Americas Cup Challenge.

Rick also has a collection of amazing shots from his expedition yachting which stretches from Antarctica to Alaska and includes Chile, Africa and the Caribbean.

At the 2012 Volvo Round the World Legends event in Alicante he was awarded the prestigious "Volvo/Inmarsat Pioneer of Media award" in recognition of his work in the Whitbread races and for inspiring the full time role of media crew members on Volvo Ocean Race yachts. He also has awards from the RNLI in UK and Mirbaud best photo of the year.
