

OCEAN STUDIES WORKSHOP/SEMINAR – MONDAY, JULY 7

DAY FIVE

Note too: This is an excursion day, please dress warmly for the harbour tour and bring a rainjacket. It's also important to be 'on the bus' in time to get to the various destinations. We will return to Lawhill in the afternoon for a special talk by Chief Engineer Stephen Murdoch, based in China and managing the conversion of Maersk ships for green fuels.

Time	Marine Science	Maritime Economics	Nautical Science
07h30 – 08h00	Breakfast.	Breakfast.	Breakfast.
08h30 depart from Lawhill – no latecomers	Aquarium departure - Waterfront	Harbour Tour departure - Waterfront	Harbour Tour departure – Waterfront.
09h30 – 12h30 10h00 – 12h00 (harbour tour)	From Slime to Spine: evolutionary relationships. (Xavier Zylstra) VENUE: Two Oceans Aquarium. Tranquility Room	HARBOUR TOUR WITH BRIAN INGPEN.	HARBOUR TOUR WITH BRIAN INGPEN.
12h00 to 12h30	Bus to Company Gardens	Bus to Company Gardens	Bus to Company Gardens
12h30 to 13h00	Packed lunch	Packed lunch	Packed lunch
13h30	Those going to the Planetarium need to be there by 13H15. Special show at 13H30
13h30 – 15h30	South African Astronomical Observatory and Iziko SA MUSEUM, Planetarium and Digital Dome could spark/heighten interest in the module and discipline of astronomical observatory. The Iziko Planetarium and Digital Dome makes virtual voyages of the universe possible, providing an unparalleled experience of animation and 360-degrees cinema.
15h30	Depart from City	Depart from City	Depart from City
17h30	Chief Engineer Stephen Murdoch, based in China, on the conversion of Maersk ships to green fuels
18h30/19h00 - tbc	Dinner	Dinner	Dinner

Free time from dinner to 22h00 at which time the building is locked for safety. Reminder – please keep balcony doors closed during the day because of baboons. They will damage property if they enter the building. Please also switch off room lights during the day to conserve electricity. This includes the downstairs guest toilets.